

NSS REGULAR ACTIVITIES/CELEBRATIONS

National service scheme has given a platform to serve the society and bring happiness and smile on many faces. We created a hub to deliver service to the society by showcasing our talents. So, it's not simply an association; it's a reason to achieve our objectives and carry on the legacy for the coming years.

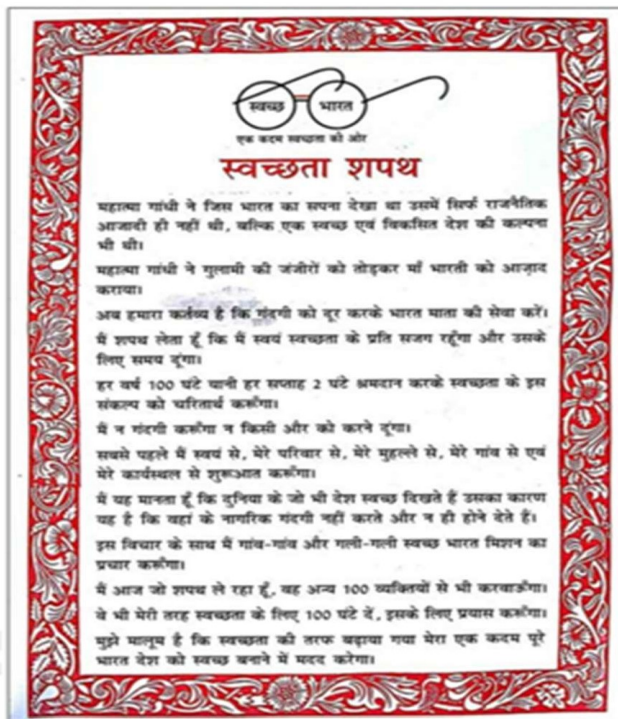

Registration and Orientation:

The registration procedure for the academic year (2018-2019) was started by NSS volunteers in the month of August, 2018. In this process the volunteers accompanying with their POs, joined a total of 452 volunteers (247 boys and 205 girls) in four units for new session. An orientation program was conducted to welcome and guide the new NSS volunteers. One of the essential parts for the success of any organization is the acquaintance of its members with the organization, its functions and objectives.

Swachhata Pakhwada:

The Clean India movement initiated by Indian Government was supported by volunteers of NSS by celebrating "Swachhata Pakhwada". Some events were organized to create awareness about the importance of hygiene in our daily lives process of nation Swachhata| Pakhwada at was celebrated with great students actively cleanliness activities on and off the campus.

At the outset, all the with faculty members and taken Swachhata Pledge. administered the pledge to littering and to not allow all present pledged to towards voluntary work sanitation and as well as in the building. The Dayanand College enthusiasm and the participated in all which were initiated volunteers along supporting staff have The volunteers "Not indulge in it to happen. Further, devote some time for cleanliness and to further propogate the pledge among friends and family. Then the volunteers of National Service Scheme conducted cleanliness drive in the offices, rooms and laboratories. Further teams of volunteers were formed and were allocated discrete responsibilities to clean college premises.

In this sequence the volunteers organized a rally to create the awareness about cleanliness. They also run a Door to Door Campaign to awake the people about the disease which generate due to lack of cleanliness. They make sure to them to become the active participant of this movement because every operation demands the individual participation which starts from household level. The volunteers also participated in intensive cleanliness at different sites and organized a Swachhta Awareness Rally.

International Youth Day:

International Youth Day (IYD) on 12^h August is designed by United Nations to draw attention to a given set of cultural and legal issues around young generation. Youth need safe spaces where they can come together, engage in activities related to their diverse needs and interests, participate in decision making processes and freely express themselves.

When youth have safe spaces to engage, they can effectively contribute to development, including peace and social cohesion. Every year IYD it is celebrated with a theme and for year 2018 it is 'Safe Space for Youth'.

On this occasion a motivational lecture about safe use of technology was performed by Dr. Bishnoi and Dr. Sangeeta (NSS POs). The volunteers took oath to avoid the misuse of technology particularly smart phones. The volunteers also aware the people about traffic rules like using seat belt, not to cross speed limit etc. They also presented flowers as a token of appreciation to safe drivers and followers of road safety.

Independence Day:

The NSS volunteers along with programme officers were assembled in the campus on the precious occasion of Independence Day. The all NSS members and other invited dignities came together to salute the national flag.

This event was made unforgettable by; Chief Guest Dr. Mahender Singh who delivered a lecture about the glorious past of India. He reminded us that this independence is result of sacrifice of various known and unknown warriors and it is our prime responsibility to preserve this. The volunteers expressed their feeling toward nation through patriotic song, speeches and cultural activities and the event was closed with National Anthem.

Sadbhavana Diwas :

Sadbhavana Diwas is celebrated on 20th August, every year in the memory of Rajiv Gandhi who dreamed to make India a developed country. His vision of making India a developed country is clearly seen by the number of economic and social works for the country. His enthusiastic and inspiring words quoted for the country development during his speech are still remembered at his birth anniversary. His quotations are very inspiring which motivate the youths of the country to lead India. One of his quotations is as follows: “India is an old country, but a young nation; and like the young everywhere, we are impatient. I am young and I too have a dream. I dream of an India, strong, independent, and self-reliant and in the forefront of the front ranks of the nations of the world in the service of mankind.” On this occasion the volunteers are advised to work for the emotional oneness and harmony of all the people of India regardless of caste, region, religion or language.

Raksha Sutra Rakhi:

As a part of Rakhi Celebration, the volunteers tied a Raksha Sutra to the trees of campus. They were advised to save trees and stop environment degradation because “there is only one earth to share and to care”. They promised to protect the trees and contribute in afforesting.

Plantation Drive:

The plantation programme was organised (28/08/2018) in sports complex and ground of Dayanand College, Hisar by NSS units in collaboration with Mission Green Foundation. The event was commenced with planting by our worthy Principal, Dr. Manju Arora who also conveyed a message of not only planting the new trees but also to protect and flourish them. The inspiration was given by Yogi Sahjanand ji. He said that trees remain with us from birth to death so we should save them and decorate earth by planting beautiful trees rather than destroying and cutting trees. It was a very successful drive. The students also took oath to save the trees.

Teacher's Day:

Teachers' day is celebrated across the world on various dates. In India, Teachers' day is celebrated on 5th September, the birthday of the former President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, a well-known scholar, teacher and promoter of education. On this special day, students celebrate the contribution of teachers in their lives and shaping up the society. The classrooms across the nation burst into colours with decorations, cultural programmes, greetings and what not. The first Teachers' Day was celebrated in 1962. The volunteers celebrated this day by gifting beautiful teacher's day cards and gifts to the teacher as tokens of love and respect and they receive the blessings of their teachers. They thanks the teachers for lighten their path and to make aware them about the difference between good and bad.

National Service Scheme Day:

National Service Scheme, under the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports Govt. of India, popularly known as NSS, was launched on Gandhiji's Birth Centenary. NSS was formally launched on 24th September, 1969 so 24 September is celebrated every year as NSS Day with appropriate programmes & activities followed by NSS Week, up to 2nd October.

On this occasion, Sh. Sajjan Singh, a social reformer and activist was chief guest who was welcomed by principal Dr. Manju Arora and NSS POs along with all volunteers. Sh. Singh gave the message to the students to avoid the drugs because a healthy young can contribute in national development. The principal madam also addressed to the volunteers and appreciated their efforts in society. Self Defense Training: The self defense training was organized by NSS of Dayanand College, Hisar on 27th September, 2018 in Mahatma Hansraj Hall. On one side, girl's volunteers were trained with different tricks of self defending while on another side boy's volunteers made this event successful through their proper and disciple management.

The chief guest of this event was Smt. Renuka Bisnoi who inspired the girls to move forward. She added that really there are a lot of problems with girls in their way but they can take over all with firm determination. By telling the importance of women education she said that education is only but most effective weapon to conquer these difficulties. The trainer explained that women are stronger than males but there is need to recognize this ability. A girl can save herself from any wrong situation by keeping a little attention of mind and using defensive technique rather than afraid the power of a man or any other who is in front of her.

Rashtria Swachhta Diwas/Gandhi Jayanti:

There is a mega campaign entitled “Swachh Bhart Abhiyan” in India to achieve the complete open defecation free status as well as to improve the condition of sanitation and cleanliness.

To reach the determined goal, 2nd October (Gandhi Jayanti) is marked as Rashtriya

Swachhta Diwas by the government. The NSS units of college celebrated this day by cleaning the campus and its nearby sites. The volunteers also addressed with a message that sooner or later, we will have to recognize that earth has rights, to live without pollution and it is our prime duty to protect it and not to harm its natural beauty. The students were also directed to download swachhta app by municipal committee representatives.

Communal Harmony Week:

Communal Harmony celebration is celebrated by National Foundation for Communal Harmony (NFCH). In 2018, Communal Harmony Week was observed from 19th-25th November. On this occasion, NSS volunteers and programme officers distributed the stickers with mark of communal harmony.

The all girls and boys volunteers participated in this event with enthusiasm. They were also advised to help those persons who become the victims of natural and social hazard and disaster and they should work for oneness and humanity rather than any particular religion, society or caste. Because the nation voted we to power to see unity and communal harmony, not for any division or commonality and we should know our own roles. We should also know the roles that others play, and the rules such roles follow.

Participation in National Integration Camp:

The two selected volunteers namely Mukesh Kumar and Sonika attended the National Integration Camp (NIC) which was organized by Jamia Milia Islamiya University, Delhi on 24-30 January, 2019. In this celebration, they met with volunteers who had come from different parts of the country. They shared their tradition and culture, experiences, and knowledge with each other. The Haryanavi dance team stood on first position and Sonika was one member of this team. They also run a cleanliness drive in campus and surrounding areas.

Participation in District Level Republic Day Celebration:

Some NSS volunteers participated in district level Republic Day celebration organized in Mahavir Stadium and performed various demonstrations of Red Cross Society.

Participation in Swachhta Awarness Rally:

The NSS volunteers participated in Swachhta Awarness Rally on 12 January, 2019 organized by Municipal Committee, Hisar. The rally was started from old govt. college, ground. The volunteers inspired to the people by various slogans, placards related to cleanliness. All volunteers performed their part actively and they also made promise to make neat and clean to their environment by cleaning the surrounding areas.

Annual Camp Report (February, 24-30, 2019)

The four units of National service scheme (NSS), Dayanand College, Hisar organized seven day annual camp in Satya Nager, Hisar under the supervision of Dr. Surinder Kumar, Mr. Suresh Kumar Dr. Sangeeta and Ms. Manju Sharma. A total number of 166 volunteers (82 Boys and 84 Girls) participated in this camp. The seven day annual camp was started on 24th January, completed on 30th January, 2019. Various invited resource persons from different fields had interacted with volunteers and graced the occasion.

24th January: Day First

The 24th January was the first and starting day of annual camp. The all selected volunteers assembled in Mahatma Hansraj Hall for inaugural function. Then they gathered in sports complex for guidance and to carry on their decided activities in Satya Nagar, Hisar which was adopted site for NSS camp. On this occasion, Prof. Anil Kumar Pundhir, Registrar of Guru Jambheshwar University of Science and Technology, Hisar was chief guest and Dr. Anup Singh Parmar, Head, Department of Geography, Dayanand College; Hisar graced the event as guest of honor. All programme officers and volunteers welcomed them by presenting bouquet and flower sticks.

The students presented NSS song and clap in their respect. The camp was started with lamp lighting ceremony by chief guest and other presented dignitaries. The chief guest addressed the volunteers and appreciated NSS programme and its importance. He highlighted that NSS has significance role in personality development and overall growth of the students by generating the feeling of responsibility and leaders. This is a voluntary service to society and because of this its motto is 'Not Me But You'. Dr. Anup Singh Parmar and NSS programme officers presented memento to chief guest. Then programme officer addressed the volunteers and underlined their responsibility during camp. After this, Mr. Kuldeep Soni, trainer of Red Cross, told about first aid and its importance in daily life. The girls and boys volunteers were grouped in to seven and six groups respectively. The girls groups were named on the basis of Indian holy rivers (Ganga, Yamuna, Sarswati, Krishna, Godavari, Narmda and Mahandi) here boys were given the name of great freedom fighters (Mahatma Gandhi, Subash Chander Bose, Chander Shekher Azad, Bhagat Singh, Swami Vivekanand and Swami Dayanand Sarswati). On this day first group of girls and boys performed as duty group. The day ended with national; anthem.

25th January: Day Second

The second day of the camp was started with prayer, report of the day and news. Then second duty group members presented thought of the day which was discussed by all volunteers with different perspective. Then first session was handled by Mr. Soni who told about various types of wounds and injuries and their treatment as a compulsory part of first aid and home nursing training. He also highlighted the importance of blood donation and motivated the volunteers to donate blood at least one time in life. Then resource person Dr. Vikramjeet Singh addressed the volunteers on the occasion of Voter Day. He unearthed the amazing fact that even after being largest democracy of the world, the voting participation of the country is unsatisfactory and only youth can change this scenario. Then Mr. Gourav also gave the message to volunteers to run their own government by giving maximum contribution in voting in various elections.

After lunch, Voter Awareness Rally was started by Sh. Tinnu Jain and then volunteers moved toward Satya Nager with banners and placards in their hands and loud slogan shouting with all programme officers and told the voting requirement to the people. All the volunteers actively participated with great zeal and enthusiasm in the group discussion. In the end of the day, national anthem was recited.

26th January: Day Third

The day was initiated with morning assembly. As being 70th Republic day on this date, the first of all flag hosting ceremony was performed in sports complex by chief guest Dr. Mahender Singh and invited guest Dr. Pardeep along with NSS POs and volunteers. Then chief guest gave the message of patriotism to the volunteers by glorifying our past. Dr. Pardeep also highlighted the great Indian literature facts and historical existence of India. Various cultural activities such as patriotic songs, speech, debate, a small skit on freedom fighters, comedy etc. were organized on this occasion in which all volunteers performed very well. The first aid training was continued by Mr. Soni. Then Dr. Mahender Singh, with his as usual interesting and brain storming activities, he engaged all the volunteers in different tasks by dividing them in different teams. The tasks involved development of various creative skills among volunteers such as how to introduce someone or something, debate, memory testing, group discussions, story writing, skits etc. After lunch the previous activities were continued and volunteers performed various short plays on given topics.

Through all these activities he made the session quite vibrant and lively. He also inspired the volunteers and inculcated in them a sense of self analysis, self confidence and introspection.

27th January: Day Fourth

The fourth day was started with morning prayer “itni shkti hme dena data...” in the presence of all programme officers. Then duty group presented report and daily assignments. In morning session, Mr. Soni discussed about drug addiction among youth and he advised to avoid to all toxic things. He also added that today new type of addiction has also emerged among society particular in youth which is Mobile Addiction. It has destroyed over mental peace and development so we should use technology very carefully otherwise the technology which is designed for our comfort, will surely make us restless in future. In second session after tea break, Yogi Sahjanand, discussed about Mission Green with volunteers and stressed and pledged them for not using the plastic. He asked the students to use eco-friendly things in our daily activities. He also gave the slogan of “Mera Thaila, Meri Shan”.

After lunch break, Swachata Abhiyan” was started in Satya Nagar and all the NSS volunteers were very excited for the symbolical cleanliness drive to actually put it into practice. The all volunteers participated in cleanliness with great enthusiasm. They spotlessly cleaned the streets of Satya Nagar within stipulated time and the residents of the area were quite happy with their efforts and hard work. After finishing the mission, volunteers assembled in the ground. The day ended with singing of National Anthem.

28th January: Day Fifth

With thanking the God for everything through prayer “Tu Pyar Ka Sagar Hai....” the fifth day was followed by previous day report, news headlines and thought of the day. On this day, Blood Donation camp was organized by NSS volunteers in association medical officers of with Life Line Charitable Hospital, Palwal. Dr. Sujata Sanghi was chief guest of this event who started it by the ribbon cutting ceremony with volunteers and Dr. Vijaypal also joined them. She appreciated the donors and said that after donating blood we feel a satisfactory feeling of saving someone life. On this occasion, 96 units of blood were donated in which 18 were girls donors. All donors were given refreshment. Mr. Soni also inspired the youth and in his session he explained the various types of bone fractures banded etc.

The girl child literacy survey was completed by girl's volunteers together with boys. They prepared a survey consisting general particulars of household and filled it by direct interview in Satya Nager. It was an exciting analytical experience with the motive of analysis the girl and women education. The volunteers actively participated in the survey and energetically performed the task in due time and after completing this they submitted the schedule of survey to their respective programme officers.

29th January: Day Sixth

The sixth duty group organized the all activities of sixth day and it was started with prayer of God. Then report of previous day and thought of the day was presented. After news headline, volunteers performed cultural activities like moral stories, poems, song etc. Then Mr. Soni continued his training of first aid. He told about the safety measures in case of snake biting, inhaling the poisonous things, burning incidents, heart attack and bone fractures etc. He told that when we meet any type of accident of our family, relatives or unknown, we should not afraid and act with very carefully. We should help the victim with available material of surrounding us at that time and after first aid, it is necessary to admit him or her in hospital.

In evening session, skits on various themes or social issues were performed by volunteer's group. Dr. Mahender Singh and Mr. Manjeet were presented as judges of their skits. The volunteers were given five to seven minutes to perform and it was very admirable that all group completed its skit within given time with a meaningful message.

The current period is known for its technological advancement which moves around the youth so main objective of three to four skits was to make alert the young generation about merits and demerits of this mechanism. They accepted that this forwardness is main cause of increasing distances between human being and losing social fraternity. Some of skit put stress on need of girl's education to eradicate the problem of dowry. After performance, judges selected two skits for first and second prizes. The first position was won by Subash Chander Bose group by performance of Siksha Sbhi Ka Adhikar and second position was occupied by Ganga group with her play named Aaj ka Smaj.

On this occasion Mr. Narender Upmanyu and Mr. Rajesh Hindustani also interacted with volunteers and delivered a message to work for nation and its unity because only youth has that power which can break the nonsense trends of society which is run on the name of caste and religion.

30th January: Day Seventh

As usual, the day was started with prayer, report, thought of the day and news broadcasting by volunteers. After this, volunteers shared their experience regarding seven day camp by telling that camp propagated and instilled the value of dignity of labour in them and generated a feeling of respect and responsibility toward society. Then demonstration regarding different types of fractures was given by Mr. Soni with volunteer's participation. He stressed that a first aider should work with presence of mind and never tries to be a doctor. He also explained about scout in detail and organized some game with volunteers.

The chief guest Mr. Narender Yadav was welcomed by worthy Principal Dr. Suman Sardana, Dr. Yashu Tayal, volunteers and NSS Pos. He addressed the volunteers and admired their zeal and dedication towards work.

In valedictory function, the winners of skit were awarded by chief guest. The best girls and boys volunteers of the camp as well as throughout the session were rewarded. The all volunteers of camp were given medal as a token of appreciation. After lunch the students performed cultural activities.

*Closing Ceremony of Annual Camp****

Drugs Free India Campaign:

The NSS units organized a programme on 16 February, 2019 named 'Drugs Free India' to make aware to youth about the hazardous consequences of drugs addiction. On this occasion resource person Mr. Samir Jolly was welcomed by Principal Dr. Suman Sardana, NSS programme officers and volunteers. In his addressing, Mr. Jolly said that the future of a nation depends on its wealthy youth so the youth should keep themselves away from all types of toxic things. Further he said that a sound mind rests in a sound body so the young generation should avoid all those things that distract them from their goal or right track. After this inspiring talk, a token of love was presented to worthy chief guest by the dignitaries present on the stage.

Participation in Drugs Free India Campaign at GJU:

The volunteers also confirmed their participation in macro level initiation camping of Drugs Free India organized by Guru Jambheahwar University of Science and Technology, Hisar on 19 February, 2019. This programme was addressed by Shri Shri Ravisankar about the hazardous impacts of drugs addiction.

Redcross Camp:

The selected volunteers attended five day camp organized by District Redcross Society, Hisar at HAU, Hisar from 25th February to march 1st 2019. The volunteers were introduced about importance, requirement and necessity of first aid training and many motivational lectures were scheduled for them like mobile addiction, drug addiction. They also participated in various creative and cultural events.

Annual Athletic Meet:

All volunteers of NSS shared their efforts in Annual Athletic Meet College, organized on 1st March, 2019 in sports ground of college. They participated in March Past with other participants of the college and welcomed the chief guest. They also involved themselves and performed actively in other duties which are assigned to them

World Women Day:

The NSS volunteers celebrated World Women Day (8th March) 2019 in GJU&ST under the banner of National Integrated Forum of Artists and Activities (NIFAA). In this event, they were introduced about women empowerment.

State Level NSS Camp:

The four students from 1st and 2nd unit were deputed for participation in State Level NSS Camp organised by Guru Jambheshwar University of Science & Technology on 22-28 March, 2019. In this camp the volunteers namely Pawan, Mahesh, Samul and Naveen represented the college and experienced a lot about duties and responsibilities of a volunteer toward the society.

Swachh Bharat Summer Internship 2.0:

Three teams of NSS volunteers participated in Swachh Bharat Summer Internship 2.0. The task 50 work hours of internship was completed within the given time period (10 June -31 July, 2019) in village Kheri Bharkhi, Siswal and Sahapur by different teams.

Remark

Undoubtedly, the gathering during any function makes the surrounding milieu very charming and when it is of youth, it becomes a golden movement. On one side, in all celebrations of NSS, the volunteers were introduced to various ways to achieve their goals, while on another side their participation was convinced in noble works of society as well as with generation of feeling of leadership, respect, co-ordination, team work. They enjoyed a lot and were confident that there is a long way ahead.
